

Ini Dia! Silencio NYC, Cabang Paris Club, Sambut Pesta Inaugural

Description

Pesta Inaugural Silencio New York: Pengembalian Nyata ke Dunia Paris Swank

A celebration took place at the inaugural party for Silencio New York. The club, which is an offshoot of the popular Parisian nightclub, is set to officially open its doors later this month. However, the club hosted a celebration for “Giants: Art from the Dean Collection of Swizz Beatz and Alicia Keys,” in collaboration with the Brooklyn Museum. The event attracted several high-profile guests, including Kehinde Wiley, Max Hollein, Joan Smalls, and Marc Spiegler, among others.

Swizz Beatz, the renowned producer and DJ, expressed his joy in bringing the Silencio vibe to his hometown. Guests at the club enjoyed the inviting ambiance of the venue, which is lined with plush maroon carpets and red-velvet wallpaper. Alcoves with gold benches house the DJ booth and a row of circular tables. Guests were seen mingling and exchanging Instagram handles, making the atmosphere truly vibrant.

The founder of Silencio, Arnaud Frisch, shared his vision for creating a unique experience in New York, separate from the Parisian club. Their goal is to do something different and embrace the spirit of New York. Silencio, which has locations in Paris and Ibiza, has already experimented with an American pop-up at Art Basel in Miami Beach in 2014. The club’s exclusive access is limited to members who pay 1,200 euros ($1,290) annually.

Mr. Frisch believes that New York was a logical next step for the club’s expansion, citing the city’s frequent cultural events that attract members of the art and fashion worlds. The new location was carefully designed by architect and designer Harry Nuriev and mixologist Remy Savage to create a distinct identity from its Parisian counterpart. The New York venue is set to bring a fresh perspective to the city’s nightlife scene.

The night was filled with contemporary hits and 1990s tracks, creating a lively atmosphere for guests to enjoy. The club's aim is to create an inclusive space that enhances New York's art scene. With the successful inauguration of Silencio New York, the city will now have a new, luxurious hotspot to look forward to for cultural and nightlife experiences.

Ringkasan

Silencio New York merupakan offshoot dari klub malam mewah di Paris yang baru saja mengadakan pesta perdananya di kota New York. Klub ini diakses melalui tangga sempit di Columbus Circle dan menjadi tempat perayaan untuk exhibition "Giants: Art from the Dean Collection of Swizz Beatz and Alicia Keys" yang menyoroti bintang seni Hitam di Brooklyn Museum. Acara ini menjadi magnet bagi berbagai tokoh seni dan fashion, serta memiliki konsep ruangan yang nyaman dan mewah. Silencio juga telah memiliki beberapa cabang di Paris dan Ibiza.
