

Setelah Kehilangan Hubungan, Bersatu dalam Keajaiban Mitos

Description

Joelle Gamble and Ryan Copeland were two busy professionals living in Washington D.C. who, despite a failed first date in 2019, found their way back to each other through a chance match on a dating app. Although they both pretended not to remember their initial meeting, their chemistry was undeniable during a FaceTime date in 2021. With the support of their former colleagues and a month of getting to know each other better, they soon realized they wanted to spend their lives together.

### The Journey to Love

- Joelle and Ryan met on a dating app in 2019 but their first date was a flop.
- They reconnected in 2021, and after a month of dating, they became a committed couple.

### The Proposal and Wedding

- Ryan surprised Joelle with a proposal at the Georgetown waterfront in March 2023.
- Their wedding took place at the George Peabody Library, attended by 100 guests and officiated by a Catholic priest.

### A Magical Celebration

- The couple's wedding featured music from "Lord of the Rings," "Harry Potter," and "Star Wars."
- The library setting added a touch of fantasy to the ceremony, reflecting the couple's appreciation for imagination.

Joelle and Ryan's love story serves as a reminder that sometimes, true connections take time to blossom. Their journey from a failed first date to a magical wedding celebration showcases the power of perseverance and fate in finding true love. With the support of friends and family, they were able to overcome past misunderstandings and build a strong foundation for their future together.
