

Wawancara dengan SISTAR19 tentang Single Baru dan Rencana Masa Depan Mereka

Description

SISTAR19 is back after 11 years with their new track “No More (Ma Boy)”, bringing nostalgia to fans of the second generation K-pop era. This duo, consisting of HYOLYN and BORA, expressed their excitement at working together again and shared details about their concept for the comeback. The mature and confident image of SISTAR19 in this release is a departure from their previous youthful concept in “Ma Boy”.

The title track “No More (Ma Boy)” carries a deeper meaning, symbolizing emotional growth and maturity. The duo also incorporated another song, “SAUCY”, to showcase different vibes within the release. SISTAR19’s colourful cowgirl concept represents their evolution over the years, focusing on a more relaxed and confident image compared to their earlier days in the industry.

HYOLYN and BORA, reflecting on their individual careers, discussed their synergy as a duo and the symbolic legacy of SISTAR. While there are no specific plans for a full group reunion, they hope to meet fans’ expectations with great performances in the future. Despite their solo activities, both artists missed being part of the group and cherish the bond shared with their members.

The timeless charm and diverse concepts portrayed by SISTAR and SISTAR19 captivate audiences worldwide. As they continue to grow as artists, their journey from second-generation stars to a musical renaissance with “No More (Ma Boy)” signifies their enduring impact on the K-pop genre. Fans eagerly await the next chapter in the story of SISTAR19, filled with passion, resilience, and unwavering love for their craft and supporters.
